ConocoPhillips Supports Flood Relief Efforts in Alberta

CALGARY – ConocoPhillips (NYSE: COP) today announced a contribution of US$1 million to support relief efforts following massive flooding in southern Alberta. Half of this amount will be donated to the Red Cross and the other half allocated to local non-profit organizations supporting flooding relief and recovery efforts. The company will also match donations from ConocoPhillips Canada employees and U.S. employees and retirees.

"So many people in southern Alberta have been impacted by this disaster, and we want to support the outstanding work that emergency responders and organizations like the Red Cross have been doing, and will be doing over the coming days and weeks," said Ken Lueers, president of ConocoPhillips Canada. "Our thoughts are with all of those who are dealing with the impact of this flood, and our sincere thanks to the volunteers who have been working to help their neighbours. Canadians are resilient, and together we'll work to recover from this unprecedented natural disaster."

ConocoPhillips has been active in Canada for more than 100 years. With approximately 2,300 full-time employees and contractors, ConocoPhillips Canada is one of the country's largest oil and gas companies.
