

Background

ConocoPhillips has been leading the search for energy in Alaska for more than 50 years. We are committed to responsibly developing Alaska's resources, providing economic opportunity for Alaska, operating at the highest safety standards and being a good neighbor.

Where We Operate

- Kenai Liquefied Natural Gas Plant since 1969
- Tyonek Platform in Cook Inlet since 1969
- Kuparuk River Unit since 1981
- The Beluga River Gas Field since 1986
- The Colville River Unit (Alpine) since 2000
- Alaska headquarters in Anchorage

Other Alaska Assets

- 36% owner in the Prudhoe Bay Unit
- 29% owner Trans Alaska Pipeline System

2013 Production

- 193,000 barrels of oil and natural gas liquids per day
- 43 million cubic feet of natural gas per day
- 2013 total: 200,000 barrels of oil equivalent per day

Community

- More than $106 million donated to Alaska nonprofits since 2000
- On average, more than 6,000 employee volunteer hours per year.

Exploration & Development

- Continued advancement of the CD5 satellite field, the first sustained oil production from the National Petroleum Reserve Alaska
- CD5 represents the new production of 10,000 to 18,000 barrels of oil per day and a peak employment of about 400 new jobs during construction
- 71 lease blocks held in the Chukchi Sea
- Exploration drilling in the Chukchi Sea on hold due to regulatory uncertainty
- 50 exploration wells, including more than 20 in NPR-A, since 2000
- The Greater Mooses Tooth Unit, the first unit in NPR-A, established in 2008
- The Bear Tooth Unit, also in NPR-A, established in 2009
- No exploration wells drilled in 2010, 2011, 2012
- One exploration well drilled in Bear Tooth Unit in 2013; results being evaluated
- Two exploration wells drilled in Greater Mooses Tooth Unit in 2014; results being evaluated

Investment & Economy

- Spent $828 million on capital projects in Alaska in 2012
- Approximately 1,100 employees
- More than $13.5 billion in taxes and $6 billion in royalties paid to the State of Alaska from 2008 to 2012
- Helping to grow Alaska's Permanent Fund
- Playing a key role in helping to secure the state's economic future

