

Ross Stalker

Vice President
Finance and Shared Services
ConocoPhillips Canada

Ross Stalker is vice president, Finance and Shared Services, with responsibility for ConocoPhillips Canada's Finance, Information Technology, Reserves and Frontiers teams.

Stalker joined the Canadian leadership team in October 2018.

Since joining the company in 1990, Stalker has held varied finance, business planning and internal control roles in ConocoPhillips' operations in the UK, Russia, Australia and the United States, latterly. Most recently, he was the manager, Finance for ConocoPhillips (U.K.) Limited.

Born and educated in Aberdeen, Stalker studied at Robert Gordon University and holds a BA (Hons) in Business Studies and is also a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Scotland.

Stalker is married to Sarah, who is an engineer and was herself employed by ConocoPhillips for 18 years. They have two sons.