20 Alaska High School Students Receive ConocoPhillips Scholarships

Anchorage, May 2, 2014 -- ConocoPhillips Alaska is pleased to announce that 20 Alaska high school seniors have been awarded ConocoPhillips scholarships totaling $100,000.

“Congratulations to these bright, hardworking Alaska students! I’m proud that ConocoPhillips has the opportunity to play a role in helping these deserving young Alaskans further their education,” said Trond-Erik Johansen, president, ConocoPhillips Alaska. “Education lays a solid foundation for not only individual success, but also family and ultimately community success. More than half of all the funds ConocoPhillips donates in Alaska support education.”

Each of the twenty students will receive $5,000. The scholarships were awarded in consideration of a variety of factors including service to their community, the applicant’s desire to make a future contribution to Alaska, school activities, achievements and academics. Some 160 graduating seniors across Alaska applied for the scholarships.
